

ELLE/PHANT

you know it when you see it as if you've known it for

I dont remember when or where I first met her

when you try to smother it

IT GROWS

might be in high school, if I've ever been in one or the convenient store, which others call "the library"

or just down a random street in the city...

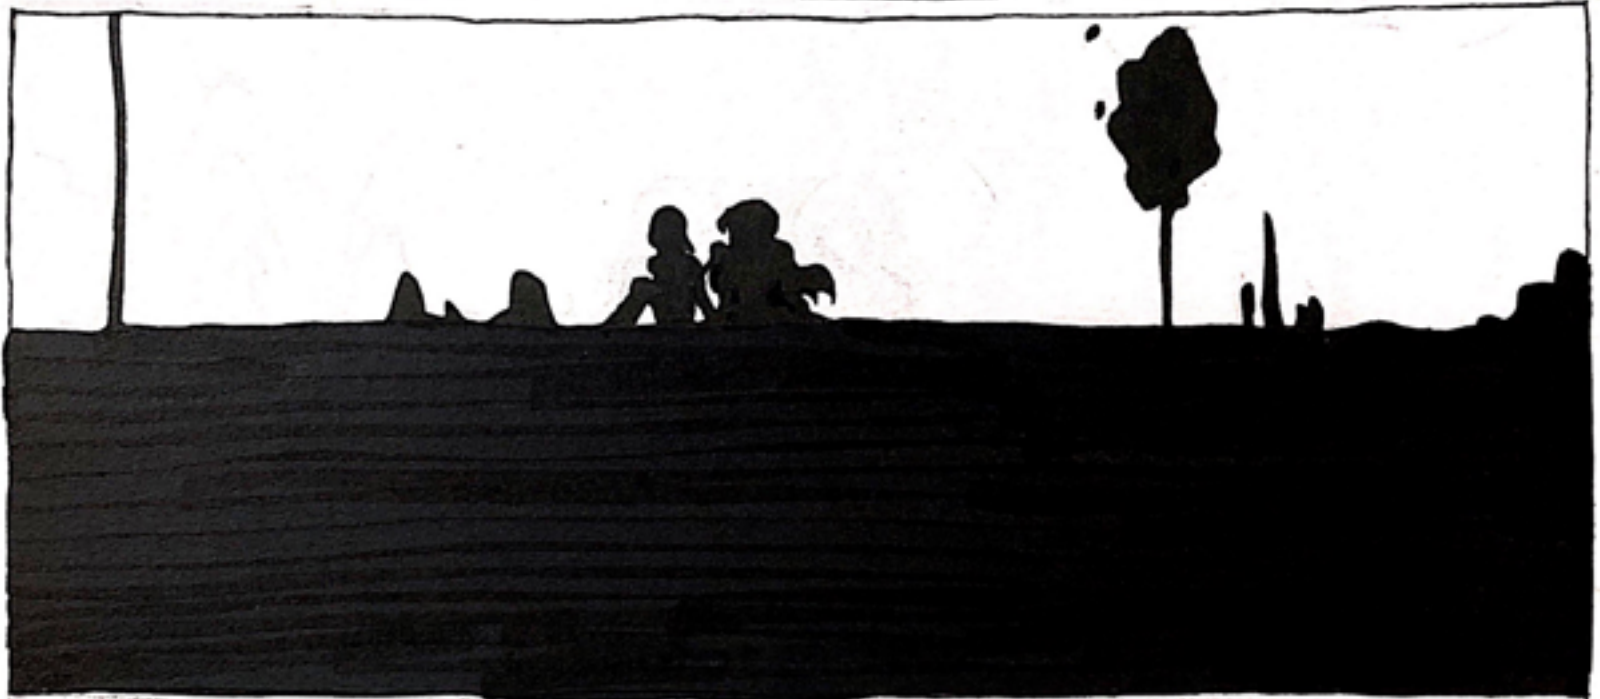

and something told me to follow

we leave
tomorrow...

...may I braid
your hair?
